ACT III • ORIGINS (~4.5 MIN) — Slide 15 • 16:30

01. 🐣 The Origin Story

> "Take us back to your very first game jam. What did you make, and what was the biggest takeaway? Did that specific weekend help solidify your desire to pursue game dev?"

TARGET PANELIST FLOW — ~45S EACH

- Larry: SuperChurchFart64 (LD25 "You Are The Villain") — proves dev can be joyous, irreverent & accessible.
- Heather: Monsantoware (Hackathon) — sparked her interaction design & accessibility career.
- Renee: Dryad (LD34 solo compo) — solo sprint exploring nature spirits & mechanics.
- Evie: UNCC GGJ — Xbox Live Indie Games release reviewed on YouTube.
- Tim: Seattle Indies & Oculus early dev ops genesis.

ACT IV • CRUCIBLE (~3.5 MIN) — Slide 16 • 21:00

02. 💥 Failing Forward

> "We've all had jams where the scope crept, the engine crashed, or the game wasn't fun. Tell us about your hardest game jam—was it a glorious failure, and what was your most valuable lesson?"

TARGET PANELIST FLOW — GLORIOUS FAILURES

- Dr. Evie: "Did You Murder Your Wife" (UNCC GGJ) — Reddit urban legend where players stashed a body to reach a boat!
- Larry: Tale Spinner / Story Spinner (GGJ 2015) — Network card game ran out of runway; paper print-and-play scramble 10m before judging!
- Takeaway: Commercial failure costs years & capital; jam failure costs 48h and gives you an unforgettable war story and wisdom.

ACT IV • COMMUNITY (~3.5 MIN) — Slide 18 • 24:30

03. 🤝 The Fellowship

> "Can you talk about a connection, friendship, or professional relationship formed in the trenches of a jam that still impacts your life today? Or a serendipitous job offer or wild collaboration born purely from a jam?"

TARGET PANELIST FLOW — BUTTERFLY EFFECT

- Dr. Evie: Seattle VR Hackathons locked in friendships & allies that propelled her spatial engineering career.
- Larry: Ludum Dare prototypes led directly to SIFF VR-Zone month-long festival exhibits (Maiden Flight) & UpLiftVR Studios.
- Tim: Connecting indie developers to lifelong co-founders & global community bridges.

ACT IV • SCOPE & CRAFT (~3.5 MIN) — Slide 17 • 28:00

04. ⚡ 48-Hour Cheat Codes

> "When the clock is ticking and you only have 48 hours to create something, what is your ultimate 'cheat code' to cross the finish line? Is it software, a design trick, or knowing what to brutally cut?"

TARGET PANELIST FLOW — INTAKE VERBATIM

- Dr. Evie: "Some of my most awesome outcomes came when I decided I wanted to learn something new rather than just win. Jams are great sandboxes to learn. Also take breaks and sleep!"
- Larry / Renee / Tim: The "One Atomic Verb" (make 1 verb feel juicy). Scope ruthlessly: cut 50% Saturday night, cut 50% Sunday morning! Free engines: Twine, Bitsy, Godot.

ACT VII • AUDIENCE ADVICE (~2.5 MIN) — Slide 22/24 • 41:00

05. 🧠 The Mindset

> "For someone sitting in the audience right now who is terrified they aren't 'skilled enough' to join a jam team this weekend or upcoming Seattle Indies jams, what is your advice to them?"

CORE TAKEAWAY MESSAGE — ZERO CODE NEEDED

- You Do Not Need to Code: Jam teams desperately need writers, artists, audio bards, playtesters, and producers who keep time and morale high.
- Zero-Pressure Sandbox: Nobody expects a polished commercial game; everyone is experimenting and learning together.
- Action: Invite everyone to visit the Seattle Indies Gaming Hall downstairs and sign up for community jams!

ACT VI • EXTENDED RUNWAYS (~4.0 MIN) — Slide 23 • 37:00

06. ☀️ Born Out of Jams

> "What projects were sparked by a game jam concept that couldn't fit into the weekend or team, but you later went back and brought to life into full creations outside of the jam?"

LARRY JAMES SPOTLIGHT — REAL CASE STUDIES

- Artemis: The Free Return: Born from space exploration jam ideas → full Newtonian WebXR cislunar simulation shown at Space Week & KremFest XR!
- Game Master RPG Framework: Tabletop narrative meets digital interaction systems, playtested at GeekFest West.
- WebVR Mercury: A-Frame 12-line HTML prototype built outside jam to bypass equipment limits → sparked CNDY Factory startup!

ACT VII • LIGHTNING ROUND (~2.5 MIN) — Slide 24/25 • Larry

07. 🔥 The Inner Fire

> "What is the fire that keeps you going when the going gets tough or tedious? What do you tell yourself inside when life in general seems to try and get in the way of your creative dreams?"

LARRY'S SECTION 3 INTAKE QUESTION — LIGHTNING ROUND

- Round-Robin: Open question for Heather, Renee, Evie, and Tim.
- Resilience: Fueling personal creative momentum across multi-year indie projects and spatial computing breakthroughs.
- Community: Turning creative isolation into collective power through regular jams.

ACT VII • GRAND FINALE (~1.5 MIN) — Slide 26 • 43:30

08. 📣 The Challenge

> "I'd like to know your experiences with game jams... how many of you will come to a jam in the next year and build a game? Let me know if you'd like to participate in future panels once you've shipped a game and have wisdom to pass along!"

CLOSING CALL TO ACTION — AUDIENCE CHALLENGE

- Audience Challenge: Make a game in the next year (even a micro-game!).
- Future Panels: Connect with Larry for upcoming regional speaking panels.
- Thank You: Thank GeekGirlCon, Room 'America' crew, Tim Cullings, Heather Coles, Renee Gittins, Dr. Evie Powell.
- Next Stop: Visit Seattle Indies Gaming Hall downstairs!
